Brampton fell to the visiting Mississauga Power 111-97; including Edmondson's game, Cavell Johnson (18 pts) and Anthony Harris (12 pts) also scored in double figures for Brampton. Edmondson and Flenard Whitfield both led the team in rebounds, with 7 apiece.

And when both squads faced each other Saturday night at Budweiser Gardens, it was a battle between two heavyweight squads, a battle that extended into overtime – and a London 99-97 triumph. Marvin Phillips led London with 35 points, including three 3-pointers and going 14-for-15 from the line. Maurice Bolden came off the bench to garner 19 points and 16 rebounds for a double-double.

The Mississauga Power are here for a purpose, and that purpose is to try to finish the season with at least a winning record for the first time in franchise history. And a 111-97 road victory Saturday night against the Brampton A's starts the Power on the right foot. Omar Strong led the Power with 3 points, while Travis Releford added 20 points in the Power victory;

Anthony Anderson's 21 points were augmented with seven assists.

It's opening night in the NBL, and Bill Jones' Windsor Express team started the season on the road, facing the London Lightning. But even with 29 points from Quinnel Brown and a 13-point, 12-rebound, five-steal night from newly-acquired Gary Gibson, the Express lost a close overtime game on the road, 99-97. Chris Commons (12 pts, 10 rebs) had a double-double for Windsor, while DeAndre Thomas' 10 points also included three blocked shots.

Game reports compiled via team press releases, and from articles appearing in newspapers from the teams' home locations.
